IAN SELLEY & RYAN NORTHMORE APPOINTED JOINT MANAGERS

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Ian Selley and Ryan Northmore as joint managers of Sandhurst Town FC.

“Ian and I have been talking for a long time about working together and have been patient to find an opportunity to be at a club with potential. We are coming in with the intention to rebuild confidence and add some experience to what is a young squad.”

Ian Selley

Ian started his playing career with Arsenal and was the youngest player in the Arsenal Team that won the 1994 European Cup in a victory over Parma.

Ian broke his leg in a league match against Leicester City which put an end to his time at Arsenal and he moved to Fulham in 1997, but another broken leg shortened his spell at Fulham and he moved to Wimbledon in 2000. Following a long spell at Woking and a number of non-league clubs, Ian ended his playing career in the summer of 2012 and was appointed as the new head coach at Arsenal Soccer Schools Dubai. He returned from Dubai in 2019 and took up a coaching role at Chertsey Town who play at Step 4 in the Isthmian League.

Ryan Northmore

Ryan was Head Coach of Saif Sporting their first season in the Bangladesh Premier League and took them to fourth Club Ltd during in the league and to AFC Cup qualifiers. He played in the Football League for Torquay United and Yeovil Town and in the National League for Woking, Weston-s-Mare AFC and Dorchester Town. He was Director of Football and Head Coach of Weston-super-Mare in the National League South and was recognised for his work developing players such as Ollie Watkins (loan from Exeter, now Brentford), Brad Ash (sold to Barnsley), Dayle Grubb (later sold to Forest Green Rovers), Scott Wilson (sold to Eastleigh, now Macclesfield).
